Get the House Into Thanksgiving Trim—Take Advantage of the Upholstery Store's Great Sale—Begins Monday

Specials in every section of the big Upholstery Store—specials tabled and displayed and price-marked plainly for the quicker helpfulness. More specials will be forthcoming day by day. But these are ready for Monday's selling:

1000 Yards More of That Wonderful "Extra-Width" Velour, at $2.85 a Yard—Which is Just Cost

52 inches wide—4 inches wider than ordinary velours. Doubly economical, for a width splits into wide-enough portieres.
Rose, blue, tan, brown, green, mulberry and taupe. But such shades—and such rich shimmer!

2000 Yards of Reversible Poplin, at 75c a Yard—Almost Half Price

36 inches wide.
Rose, blue, tan, green and mulberry.
Ever stop to think how it's being reversible makes it cut to advantage? Not an inch need be waste!

2000 Yards of Tapestry Covering, at $4.95 a Yard—Just Exactly Cost

Not printed!—But woven.
50 inches wide.
Right weight for upholstering furniture.
Floral designs—and beautiful.

5000 Yards of Japanese Tussah-Silk—Our Own Importation—at 95c a Yard

Because we bought at that thrilling moment—in Japan—when silk prices dropped for the briefest while, to rock-bottom!
Especially good for door-drapes—and indoor-drapes—for festoon drapery curtains, over-hangings and lamp-shades.
33 inches wide, and "twelve"???oin—about twice the number of threads to the inch that—most tussah is!
